These four young men, all coming from the same small Austrian district town Weiz joined about three years ago.
Wherever their inspiration came from, they dedicated their lives to the good old Rock'n Roll as it was known in former times, when it still had the incredible power to blast our radios and our minds.
And it's not for their age, that's for sure.
With lots of love and all due respect for this myth they create a sound which makes you forget time and space.
